

2018 St. Vincent de Paul Ozanam Humanitarian Recipient

SANDY INZANA was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland where she graduated from Patapsco High School in 1965. Sandy and her loving husband, Joe, have been married for 52 years and have a son and granddaughter. They lived in Pasadena, Maryland for 19 years and then Atlanta, Georgia for 13 years before retiring to Ebensburg.

Since moving to Ebensburg Sandy has been busy volunteering for several organizations. She is a past board member of Cambria County Habitat for Humanity. She joined Catholic Daughters of the Americas where she serviced as financial secretary, vice regent, and regent; and she held several positions with the Altoona/Johnstown Diocesan Committee of Catholic Daughters.

For the past 15 years, she has volunteered for St. Vincent de Paul where she served as president, treasurer, and made home visits with her husband Joe.

Currently Sandy is the secretary for the diocesan committee and Peter Lemke Council. She is involved in all Holy Name Church fundraisers as well as being an office assistant, a Eucharist Minister for the Church, and a first grade religious education teacher. She is the assistant director of the Holy Name Gabriel Project, a program that aids unwed mothers. (Currently 21 mothers are in the program.)

In addition to her commitment to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Sandy assists with the Cambria County fair whenever possible.

St. Bernard's Conference in Hastings and St. Mark's Kitchen Committee in Altoona were also recipients this year.

